

We hereby inform you that, starting from 18/11/2004
Babbini S.r.l. changed their legal name into Babbini S.p.A.

Such a change represents a further step in that business and company's growth that followed the industrial project started in 2001 with the establishment of the Cangialeoni Group; Babbini is a significant part of it.

This transformation is an important goal but, above all, it is for all our customers and suppliers, a further guarantee and industrial reliability factor of the Babbini Company.

We wish everybody a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous 2005.
